BIOGRAPHY

Callum played 1st team cricket, soccer and hockey during his early school days. He also played provincial soccer until the age of 13. From Grade 8, he concentrated on his golf and played 1st team for his school, King Edward VII High School.

He represented Central Gauteng from U14 - U23, as well as at Senior level. In 2013, he represented South Africa and won the All Africa Championships in Swaziland.

His best amateur ranking was 4th in the Golf Digest Amateur Rankings, and 5th in the SAGA's Open Amateur Rankings. He won on the IGT Tour as an amateur in 2013 and was the IGT Tour's Race to Q School Champion.

He turned pro for the 2014 Sunshine Tour's Qualifying School, where he finished 6th. Callum is a dedicated individual with a steady performance record. To date Callum has achieved nine top 10 finishes on the Sunshine Tour and narrowly missed out on winning the Mopani Redpath Zambia Open in Zambia during the 2019 season.
