Junior Golf Academy

Program Description

A full-time program for school Grades 8 - 12, where learners combine intensive high-performance golf training with quality education. Students study the international Cambridge system and/or American GED curriculum (Available for higher grades) in the BSI International Study Centre alongside athletes from many other sports.

Academics

Our academics is modern and flexible, utilizing an online learner management system and private tutoring on-call. This unique approach provides excellent individualised academic support, whilst giving young golfers flexibility to adapt their study time around their tournament schedule. This style of education is becoming more popular for talented young sports athletes. Each student works at their own pace, based on a weekly work plan in each subject. The BSI Sports Study Centre is fully supervised, and each student is allocated an Academic Guide to manage their progress. This takes the stress out of the distance learning model for parents.

The students split their days between the classroom, the range, the gym and the golf course.

Performance Training

Technical Training - Players receive world class coaching from a team of PGA Coaches. Full use is made of the latest coaching technology and training aids to accelerate the improvement process. Training is skill based, with technical interventions where required.

Golf Fitness - Students receive regular group and individual training in golf fitness and physical literacy. The focus of the training is to create mobility, stability, speed and power to ensure maximum efficiency for the golf swing and to prevent injuries.

Mental Conditioning – Students receive weekly mental conditioning sessions in a group format with our resident Mental Coach, as well as some private sessions. Extra sessions are available at additional cost.

Tournaments - BSI Golf students compete in weekly strokeplay tournaments and multi-round championships, which form the basis of an Order of Merit. All key statistics are analysed to help form the student's development plan. Students are also expected to compete in local and national tournaments.

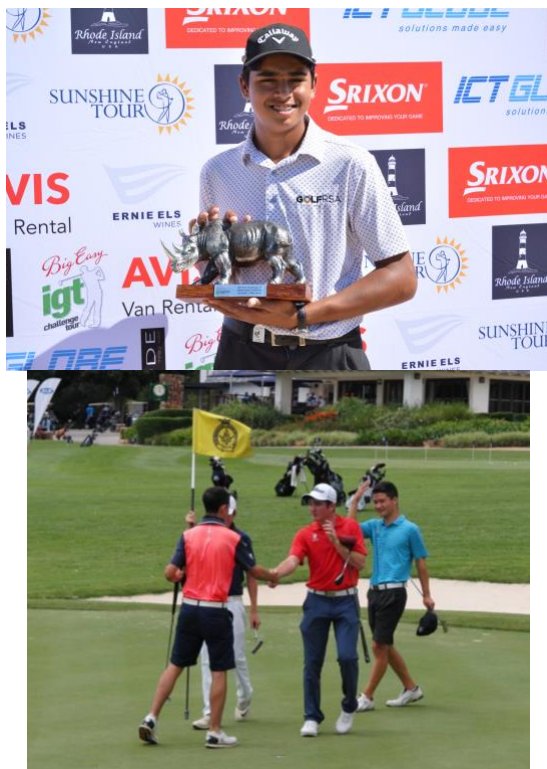

Success Stories

Amongst other successes, we trained the only US Kids Golf World Champion from South Africa to date, the youngest player ever to qualify for the SA Open, and the 3rd youngest player to win an official world ranking professional event. Many BSI students have gone on to achieve playing privileges on the Sunshine Tour and international tours.
